

LOCATION:

VAL THORENS

Le Fitz Roy has the look and feel of an exclusive club. With its dark wood panels, leather furniture and slick monotone décor, it oozes cosmopolitan style. Its location could not be better for those looking to ski right from the front door, with instant access to the entire Three Valleys immediately after breakfast. Then end your day on the sunny south facing terrace with a well-earned drink. This is a great hotel for couples and families alike – cosy and intimate and just metres from the ski school meeting point. And if you have a sweet tooth, you'll love the pudding menu!

Le Fitz Roy

Just everyone, from a morning blast, to an entire day never a blank paradise of 150km of immaculately groomed red and blue, some undulating black, and fewer down laps in snow covered tracks. With its north facing slopes, it often in the entire Three Valleys, and thanks to its extensive high ally quality free.

ABOUT VAL THORENS:

Not only is it the highest resort in the Three Valleys, it's the highest in Europe. The panoramas from up here are dramatic, and because of its altitude, the snow is more reliable than all other resorts in the region. Val Thorens' renaissance into a sophisticated resort is now well-documented. Way above the tree line, its 140km of pistes have something for everyone – gentle sweeping greens and blues for beginners, lots of technical reds and some challenging blacks. And if you have the time and stamina, it's also possible to ski into the "fourth" valley – the Maurienne, and over to the quieter slopes of Les Menuires. Lunch is often less expensive here than in its sister resorts, whilst La Folie Douce is conveniently located on your way back to Méribel.
